

Jennifer Teisinger moving on; symphony looks for director

Jennifer Teisinger, who has been executive director of the Vancouver Symphony for the past 18 months, has accepted a similar position with the Sun Valley Summer Symphony, reportedly the largest privately funded free symphony in the nation.

"We very much appreciate what Jennifer has done for us in the 18 months that she was with us and are proud of the recognition this new position provides her," says symphony board chairman Paul Winters.

"Personally, I hate to see her go. I have very much enjoyed working with her. She has a high degree of energy, professionalism, intelligence and political savvy."

Teisinger will remain with the Vancouver Symphony through mid-August. Meanwhile, the local symphony is advertising for a new director.

A search committee has been formed and is just starting to advertise the position. The salary, approximately $50k depends on abilities. For further information, call Winters at 260-0275.

Lonnie Moss retires from county planning commission

Lonnie Moss, civil engineer and consultant, is retiring from the Clark County Planning Commission following nearly ten years of service.

"We are fortunate that Lonnie volunteered so much of his time for so long," Clark County commission board chairman Marc Boldt said today. "We appreciate the knowledge and dedication that he brought to the Planning Commission over the last decade."

Commissioners are seeking applicants to fill Moss's unexpired term, which continues through December 2010. Letters of interest should be sent to Jennifer Clark, Commissioners Office, P.O. Box 5000, Vancouver, WA 98666-5000. Deadline for applying is Friday, July 21.

Mike McGavick bringing GOP senate campaign to Vancouver

A fundraiser for Republican U.S. Senate candidate Mike McGavick is 5:30 to 7 p.m. Thursday, July 13, in the Red Cross Building in west Vancouver Barracks. McGavick's Democratic opponent is incumbent Maria Cantwell, who is completing her first six-year term in office.

Hosts for the McGavick reception are as follows: Dave Christensen, Shari Hildreth, Randi Holland, Bruce Holmstrom, Wally Hornberger, Arch Miller and Roger Qualman.

For reservations, call 625-2500.

Political season official as candidate filing period begins

Beginning today, candidates for public office may file by mail for positions that will be on the fall ballot. Candidates also have the option of filing for office in person with the county Elections Department between Monday, July 24, and Friday July 28.

The primary election is Tuesday, Sept. 19; the general election, Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Positions open at the county level include the following: assessor, auditor, clerk, commissioner, district 3, prosecuting attorney, sheriff, treasurer and six county District Court Judge positions. In addition, there is a position open on the board of Clark Public Utilities commission. Two representative positions are open in the 15th, 17th, 18th and 19th legislative districts. One position for state senator is open in the 15th district.

In addition, local voters will cast ballots for one U.S. senator, one U.S. representative, three state Supreme Court positions and one state Court of Appeals position.

CREDC brings in national port executives

Kurt Nagle, President/CEO of the American Association of Port Authorities, and John Martin, President of Martin and Associates Economic Impact Research, will report on the Port of Vancouver's economic benefit study, at the Columbia River Economic Development Council 11:30 a.m. luncheon, Tuesday, July 11, in the Hilton Vancouver Washington.

Call 567-3171, for reservations for the $30 luncheon.

Calendar

The Vancouver City Council, meeting in a workshop session at 4 p.m. today, will discuss proposed changes in taxi cab regulations, after which the council will go into a closed session to discuss labor negotiations and litigation. The council will reconvene at 7 p.m. to consider a short consent agenda. ☞ The Fort Vancouver Regional Library District board of trustees meet at 6 p.m. this evening in Three Creeks Community Library, 800-C NE Tenney Road. ☞ The Neighborhood Associations Council of Clark County meets at 7 p.m. this evening in the Public Works Conference Room, 4700 NE 78th Street. ☞ Clark Public Utilities commissioners meet in regular session at 9 a.m. Tuesday, July 11. ☞ Port of Vancouver commissioners meet in regular session at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 11. ☞ The Clark County Emergency Medical Service District board meets at 9:45 a.m. Tuesday, July 11, in the sixth-floor hearing room in the Public Service Center. ☞ Clark County commissioners meet at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 11.

Monday headlines

Baghdad erupts in mob violence--New York Times, Kirk Semple
Four-story building in east Manhattan collapses--New York Times, John Holusha
Vancouver franchisee planning expansion of Romano's Macaroni Grill, including a Columbia Tech Center location east of 164th Avenue--Vancouver Business Journal, Shane Cleveland
'Pistol Packin' Mama' Blanche Bross tells her story--Columbian, Margaret Ellis
Camas readies to celebrate its centennial--Columbian, Dean Baker
Humane Society of Southwest Washington gets half-million dollar boost--Columbian, Kelly Adams
Jordan Lerner talks about her PR job with Port of Ridgefield--Columbian, Courtney Sherwood
Flame rekindled after 54 years--Columbian, Erin Middlewood
Rail traffic overwhelming capacity--Oregonian, Bill Stewart
Columbia River toxins moving up food chain--Seattle Times, Craig Welch
Japan thinking the unthinkable: a pre-emptive strike against North Korea--Seattle Times, AP Mari Yamaguchi

Monday on the air

Vancouver City Council Workshop (live)—4 p.m. CVTV
Vancouver City Council (live)—7 p.m. CVTV
AARP Cyber Safety Consumer Seminar (6/14)—10 p.m. CVTV

Town Tabloids and the Weather

Glenda Stamps reporting marketing success. ☞ Gay Davis offering mulligan. ☞ Julie Olson and Gay Smith speaking to worldwide audience. ☞ Wayne Nelson putting another candle on the cake. ☞ Neil Kimsey putting cat in bag. ☞ Monday, damp around the edges, 74. Tuesday mostly cloudy, 72. Wednesday, mostly cloudy, 69.